WAS BROUGHT BACK FROM MONTIVIDEO

Former Clerk in Dallas Tax Collector's Office Brought Back to Texas For Trial.

(By Associated Press.)

New York, June 2.—Clarence K. McGoun, formerly a clerk in the tax collector's office at Dallas, Texas, was brought here today from Montivideo by a detective to be taken back to Dallas, Texas.

Dallas, Texas, June 2.—Clarence K. McGoun, alleged tax defaulter from the Dallas city tax collector's office, brought back to the United States by City Detective Moffitt after extradition proceedings with Uruguay last spring, was expected to arrive in New York today, in custody of Dallas officers, to be brought here to face trial. McGoun and a companion were alleged to have absconded from Dallas early in February with $10,000 in city tax funds. McGoun was a deputy collector.

Subsequent work of authorities in locating the two men has been regarded as one of the most prominent crime-detecting coups in the Southwest. The two men were traced to Rio Janeiro and later to Montivideo, Uruguay, where they were detained. Extradition papers were obtained from the state department at Washington, and an officer sent from Dallas to bring the men home. It was said in a report to Mayor Henry D. Lindsay of Dallas from the officer that only a small portion—less than $500—remained of the substantial amount alleged to have been stolen from the city. McGoun, it is stated, stated to officers that he lost the bulk of the money in games of chance indulged in en route to South America, and at Rio

He was located in Montivideo after a searching inquiry over all South America, made by Dallas police officials and United States government authorities.

While in custody in Montivideo, McGoun made a complaint to the United States state department, through consular representatives, on the food he was receiving in prison. He said his three meals daily consisted principally of chili, with little else.

EUGENE EDGE TO ERECT BUILDING

Three Story Reinforced Concrete Building to Be Erected on East Anderson Street.

Announcement was made this morning by Mr. Eugene Edge of this city that he would erect a three story reinforced concrete building on a lot which he owns on East Anderson Street, located just west of the fire station. The building is to be the most modern in the city. It will have three full stories and basement, and will have an elevator service, which is a progressive step that has never been taken in the City of Bryan before. The plans for the new structure are now being prepared but Mr. Edge said that he was not in a position to give out the occupants for the new building. However, it is understood the two upper floors will be fitted up for office purposes.

This step taken by Mr. Edge is an indisputable evidence that Bryan is fast growing to be a city. The location of the new building is ideal for its purpose, as it is right between the County Court House and the Federal Building, and is centrally located in the heart of the business district. Mr. Edge is a man who has all confidence in Bryan and is a good booster for all new enterprises. Let the good work continue.

GERMAN AND BRITISH SHIPS FOUGHT ALL NIGHT

The German and British Fleets Met off Denmark on May 31st and Greatest Naval Battle of the War Was Fought Lasting all Night. Both British and Germans Lost Heavily, the Germans Claiming the advantage. The British Admiralty Confirms the Report of the Sea Fight and the Losses. Fighting About Verdun Continues With the French Still Gaining. Settling Irish Question.

(By Associated Press.)

Berlin, June 2.—The German high sea fleet on May 31 encountered the British battle fleet and in the ensuing engagement, which lasted all night, the results were favorable to the Germans. A large British battleship, the Warspite, the battle cruisers Queen Mary and Indefatigable and two armored cruisers were destroyed, the German admiralty statement claims. It is also reported that small British cruisers, a number of torpedo boat destroyers and torpedo boats were sunk.

On the German side the cruiser Wiesbaden was sunk by gunfire and the Pommern was sunk by a torpedo. The fate of the Frauenlob is unknown. Some torpedo boats failed to return. The fleet returned to port on June 1. The battle was fought off Denmark.

Confirmed Sea Fight.

(By Associated Press.)

London, June 2.—The official British admiralty statement confirms the German sea battle and the losses to the British and Germans.

Settling Irish Question.

(By Associated Press.)

London, June 2.—The Evening Standard says a basis of agreement has been reached for the settlement of the Irish question and that the proposed Irish parliament will be set up immediately. Ulster is being excluded. The parliament will be made up of the present Irish representatives in the British parliament.

War Summary.

(By Associated Press.)

London, June 2.—In the course of heavy fighting on the Verdun front, which continued throughout the night, the French progressed slightly south of Cures Wood, the French official statement announces. The struggle between Thiaumont Farm and Vaux, east of the Meuse, was described as extremely violent.

The German attack yesterday northwest of Verdun, which gained a first line of French trenches in a crucial sector between Fort Douaumont and Vaux, has been followed by extreme violence. Today's French official statement fails to record the outcome, indicating that the result thus far is indecisive.

The capture of Callette Wood, south of Fort Douaumont on the Verdun front and adjoining trenches, was announced today by the Berlin war office.

MUSICAL INSTRUMENT INSTALLED

Costly Wurlitzer Theatre Orchestra Has Been Installed at the Queen Theatre.

The enterprising and wide-awake picture show man of this city, Mr. W. R. Fairman, has just completed the installation of a very expensive and elaborate Wurlitzer Theatre Orchestra. The machine is of the very latest design and is a credit to the larger cities of the state. The cost of this instrument to Mr. Fairman was $4500, and he is to be congratulated for bringing such a fine instrument to the city. It shows his confidence in the growth of Bryan, as the machine belongs to a very large theatre in a city. However, this enterprising manager says that nothing is too good for the people of Bryan.

The instrument was installed by Mr. J. R. Mailson, who is an expert in this line, sent here by the manufacturers of the Wurlitzer products.

Mr. Fairman has employed Mrs. Cleo Craig of Dallas to operate the machine. Mrs. Craig came from the largest and best equipped picture theatre in the state, the Washington of Dallas.

The instrument requires the wind from a two-horsepower motor to produce the sounds through the pipes. It can be run without the assistance of an organist on the order of an electric piano, or with an organist any piece of music written can be produced on same.

The music is subject to lightning change and is timed to the rapidly shifting scenes of the pictures. Plays an entire orchestra, brass band and pipe organ, violins, flutes, piano, cornets, cellos, choir or quartet singing, chimes, orchestral bells, xylophones, fifes, bass drums, snare drums and kettle drums, and every effect, from an Indian tom tom to the roar of the ocean. There is nothing mechanical in the sound; tones are pure, clear, sweet, human-like and appealing.

Mr. Fairman is also installing boxes and making other interior improvements at the Queen.

DANGERS OF MOST FLY POISONS

In Farm and Fireside is an article telling of the dangers to human beings in many fly poisons.

Most of them contain arsenic—a deadly and rapid poison. In view of the extent to which such poison is kept in saucers about many houses during fly time, let us bear in mind that the pranks of children never cease. In the past two years 72 cases are on record of children being poisoned by playfully drinking the contents of saucers set out for flies.

"Some of the children died, but most of them, having prompt medical treatment, recovered. Michigan now has a law regulating the sale of fly poisons. But a matter of this kind is often successfully coped with if the attention of intelligent people is simply called to the danger. We are not condemning fly poisons, but simply urge care in keeping them out of the reach of youngsters."

Visit our music department and look over our splendid assortment of songs and instrumental music. Clean, standard, and rags. Popular at 10 cents a copy. E. F. Parks.
